Hi Dr. Thadani,

I am sorry to hear that your condition has flared up, and I hope that it improves soon.

You are a phenomenal professor, and your expertise in the field and excellence in teaching are one of a kind. You have really helped me to understand difficult concepts and set us up for success in pathophysiology. Thank you.

After our discussion today, I wanted to reach out to let you know that I always feel supported in your class, whether in person or online, and I greatly appreciate your thoughtful approach.

I'm looking forward to the rest of the term and Pathophysiology II next semester, whether online or in person.

Take care,

Dawn
